Almost -- Not Quite!

"Life is not like a sponge, to be squeezed, but a barrel to be filled. It is not what we get out of it, but what we put into it that counts. He who would drain the precious liquid to its dregs, who would drink its last drop to satisfy his own thirst is worse than a miser. He leaves life poorer but he himself is no richer. The man who gives of whatsoever he may have to the great storehouse of the world makes his life richer and the world a better dwelling place for all."

On his first trip to Washington, Russian Premier Kosygin was taken on a tour through the new computer room at the Pentagon. In demonstrating the machine's remarkable capabilities as a prediction unit, Kosygin was asked if he would like to ask the machine any questions.

"Why, yes" Kosygin replied.

He turned to the machine and asked: "What will the United States be like 25 years from today?"

Within minutes, out came a printed analysis and commentary of things to come, that was simply remarkable.

Then he asked another question, "What will the USSR be like 25 years from today?"

Out come another printed analysis. Kosygin stared at it with extreme interest.

"What does it say?" he was asked.

"I'm not sure," Kosygin answered. "I can't read it because it's in Chinese."

"Please get to the mess hall on time," said the sergeant politely. "And please be sure to rise early. And remember, if you please, the proper attire which constitutes the uniform of the day."

The next day the sergeant came in and roared, "Hit the deck, you slobs, get over to the slop hall for some mess and put on your old clothes for latrine detail."

"But, seregant," pleaded the draftee, "yesterday you were so nice and polite. What's happened to you?"

"Yesterday," roared the sergeant, "we were taking pictures for Life magazine!"

And a "Hot Time" was definitely had by all that attended the First Annual Spring Dance sponsored by your Volunteer Firefighters last Saturday evening.

If you missed this great affair you really missed one that was full of fun and enjoyment from the start to the finish; in fact the finish was one that almost did not end as those in attendance just could not make up their minds to quit the fun and go home.

Although many did not understand what they were doing, the Square Dancing, called by the famous Mort Simpson, was one of the highlights of the evening, and many went away from the dance bound and determined that before much more time elapsed they would take lessons and learn the art of Square Dancing.

Ten to twelve prizes were distributed by your Firefighters to those in attendance and the grand door prize awaits the person that holds the lucky ticket.

Although most of the Firefighters already knew that they had NOT made the quota necessary to purchase their priority equipment, they were happy and jubilant in the thoughts of the over 700 responses that they had received and the many letters of kindness that were sent to them.

As the First Annual Spring Dance came to a close and the receipts from the door were tabulated, as well as the meager profits from the drinks, it was found that they were still short a little over $800 in their drive for the possibility of three categories of much needed new equipment.

Since they are still very much willing to accept any contributions that may have been detained for one reason or another, even though the dance is all over, it is their hope that enough will be forthcoming to take care of the Phase One, the big Priority, that of the individual radios. If this is not accomplished, then they will consider the second and the third priority and await until the next year for the radios.

If you were out of town, or your "ship" just came in, and you have a spare dollar or two, please send it in as soon as possible to P.O. Box 224, or leave it at the Fire Prevention Bureau in City Hall or the Sierra Madre News Office. Just another $250 and the big one will be in their grasp.

Those that contributed since the last report, but not of course, those that attended the dance and could not be named, include the following:

Sierra Madre '71 Sales Lag

Board of Equalization member George R. Reilly reported taxable transactions in California reached a new peak of $46.8 billion during 1971, topping the total of 1970 by 8.3 per cent or appproximately 3.6 billion.

The bulk of the advance in dollars transacted in 1971 resulted from increased physical volume of merchandising and not from inflated prices, according to the board's statistical research and consulting division, which prepared the annual report, "Trade Outlets and Taxable Retail Sales in California."

Sierra Madre businesses were unable to rally with Christmas Sales to offset the sales figures of the previous year.

In 1970, 56 retail licensed businesses did a total of $4,680,000; during the year 1971 the business establishments went up to 57, but the business accumulated was $4,569,000, a drop in sales of

Important Information

In a letter and a copy of the PCC Courier, Mr. Frank Fleck of Pasadena points out to the readers of the Sierra Madre News some of the schedules that are presented to the students of the school.

The headlines stated "Black Culture Week" and on the agenda schedule were two items that Mr. Fleck wanted brought to the attention of the general public.

May 22, 1972 at 12-noon "Angela Davis information booth, Campus Center," and at 12-noon of the 23, "Angela Davis Committee speaker, Harbeson Hall." "Just thought you might want to know," states Mr. Fleck.

June 4 Set For 'Hope Sunday'

Sunday, June 4, is Hope Sunday, when more than 100,000 "Volunteers for Hope" — housewives, factory and other workers, businessmen, service club members and students — will go door-to-door in their neighborhoods seeking contributions for the free and nonsectarian City of Hope.

Hope Sunday is the one day each year when the support of the general public is asked to help the City of Hope in its battle against the major catastrophic diseases of our times: cancer, leukemia, blood, maladies of the heart, chest heredity and certain metabolic disorders, such as diabetes.

Referred by their physicians, patients come to the City of Hope from every community in Southern California — and in record numbers so far in 1972.

Now in its 59th year, the City of Hope is in the midst of a "New Horizons" building and program expansion effort totaling $18 million — over and above its annual $17.9 million operating budget.

Petition Circulated To Stay In SGMWD; Facts Wrong

The Sierra Madre News has been informed that petitions are being circulated to halt the current city actions regarding the San Gabriel Valley Municipal Water District. Before signing any petition you should know the facts.

The City of Sierra Madre has recently completed a study which shows that Sierra Madre will pay over $6 million for the construction of pipelines to bring the water from the State Feather River Project to the San Gabriel Valley, but due to a policy adopted by the Water District Board, delivery of the water to Sierra Madre will not be included.

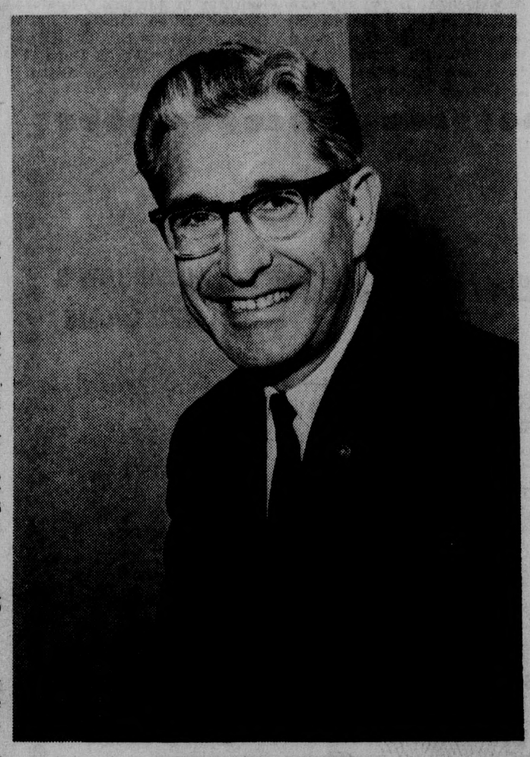

From its inception the Water District Board had recognized that the City of Sierra Madre had a unique problem in that it did not pump from the San Gabriel Basin. Engineering studies were made to include a well and pipe line from the San Gabriel Basin to the city main pumping plant.

In 1970 the Water District Board reversed its 10 years of promises to deliver State water to the City of Sierra Madre and stated they did not intend to deliver the water but would saddle the city with the entire cost of constructing a well and more than five miles of pipe line.

The Water District plan is to release the water east of the City of Azusa and thereby force the citizens of Sierra Madre to spend over

Postmaster Guy Rossi Retires After 34 Years Of Service

POSTMASTER GUY ROSSI
. . . Retires After 34 Years Service

Postmaster Guy Rossi will close out a long and varied postal career at the Sierra Madre Post Office on Friday, June 9. Guy, whose postal career began almost 34 years ago, has been postmaster since July 1, 1965, when he replaced Charles Louk. He has been an employee of the Sierra Madre Post Office since 1945 when he transfereed here from Canton, Ohio post office upon his discharge from the U.S. Army.

Postmaster Rossi's career began in 1938 as a substitute clerk in the Canton, Ohio post office. In February 1941 he was conscripted into the Army and had just about completed his year of duty when the infamous attack on Pearl Harbor took place, thereby causing the extension of army duty to almost five years. Upon his discharge in October 1945, he transferred from Canton, Ohio to the Sierra Madre office, since he had been making his home in Sierra Madre while stationed at Santa Anita and thought this was a pretty nice place to live. He was a letter carrier from 1945 to 1948 when he returned to his original capacity as a clerk and served in that position until 1955 at which time he was appointed Assistant Postmaster. He served as Assistant Postmaster from 1955 until appointed Postmaster in 1965.

Guy has been active in a number of civic activities among which are the Kiwanis Club in which he served as president in 1968 and the United Crusade in which he served as chairman of the business area in 1967. He also coached several years in the Little

New Withholding Law Nets Over 1/4 Billion Dollars

A senior Reagan Administration official said today that more than a quarter of a billion dollars in personal income tax withholdings has been collected by the Department of Human Resources Development since the new withholding law went into effect, January 1, 1972.

Sigurd I. Hansen, HRD's director, said the department had collected checks totaling $287,766,738 through May 8, which represented the bulk of the first quarter's returns by employers.

"In the first three days of May, when most of the quarterly returns were coming in, we received more than $84 million, nearing the $87 million deposited for the entire month of February," Hansen said.

He added that the tax money has been coming in to HRD at the rate of 65 to 70 mailbags per day, ranging in daily totals from $8 million to $18 million.

HRD is administering the reporting, collection, refunding and enforcement of personal income tax required to be withheld by employers since most employers are already registered with HRD under laws relating to unemployment insurance and disability insurance contributions.

"The first two months' experience, when over $180,600,000 was collected, proved the value of extensive advance planning done by this Department," Hansen said. He commended HRD employees for smooth operation of the collection process.

"Although the law was not passed until December, HRD was able to begin processing returns in January. By February, over 8,000 additional employers subject to withholding had registered with the Department. An intensive education program was set up, to inform more than 400,000 California employers on how the new tax affects them. Field tax offices throughout California held employer seminars and were available for individual employer problems," Hansen added.

"Processing returns from 440,000 employers and accounting for $180 million in the first two months was absorbed into regular procedures with the addition of only 98 new employees and at a minimal cost to the taxpayer. Implementation of the withholding tax law was an outstanding example of interdepartmental and employer cooperation. Only one-tenth of one per cent of the employers requested extra time to file returns."

Guy and his wife Lillian plan to make their home in San Luis Obispo where they will manage the "Lamp Lighter Motel." They invite all their friends to come and "Try Our Bed For Sighs."

He met his wife Lillian while he was stationed at Camp Santa Anita and she was a telephone operator on loan from the telephone company in Alhambra. They were married in 1944 and made their home in Sierra Madre. They have two children, Daryl who is employed by Normark Company, a food brokerage firm, and Diane, who is presently residing in Honolulu with her husband Owen, who is in the Navy and stationed on a nuclear submarine. He will be discharged within the near future and hopefully in time to attend the fall session at Cuesta College which is located at San Luis Obispo. Daryl plans to remain in the area, possibly somewhere in the beach area since his territory that he covers for his employer is Orange County.

Toy Soldiers Hold Regular Meeting At Sierra Madre Park House May 10

The "Toy Soldiers" held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday, May 10, from 7 to 8 p.m. in the Park House. After Cathy Crook, the secretary, called the roll, Mrs. Helen Peterson talked about up-coming events for them and the Toy Loan.

On Wednesday, May 17th at 7 p.m. the semi-annual Toy Loan "Honor Roll" Party will be held in the Sierra Mesa School cafetorium. This is the time for all Toy Loan borrowers, who have earned Honor Gifts in the last six months, to be given their honor certificates. These are awarded by the organization's very special judge, Councilman James Abernethy, who makes each child realize the importance of his achievement. It is a gala evening for all Toy Loan borrowers and their parents, with entertainment, refreshments (brought by the mothers) and favors for the children.

The girls were reminded that on a Saturday early in June they would probably again be giving help at the Kiwanis Community Breakfast, as they have done ever since the group was organized. Then of course there were plans to be made for their entry in the Fourth of July Parade.

As usual, Mrs. Peterson had a few reminders about taking care of the toys, encouraging the girls to do even a better job. Then she read a note addressed to her and the "Toy Soldiers" thanking them for the wonderful job the girls did at the Civic Club dinner on Saturday, April 29. The note was from Mrs. Nancy Schollenberger, who was in charge of the dinner. Mrs. Peterson also told them how much she appreciated the good job they had done and how proud of them she was.

Work schedules for the next few weeks were made out. Before she got some help from a few girls to serve refreshments, Mrs. Elaine Du Clos, "Toy Soldier" chairman for the Civic Club, told them how much the Civic Club appreciated the way they helped at the dinner, and the help they give at the Toy Loan. To show their appreciation they plan to give the girls a special treat. They decided a skating party would be fun and it will be soon, Saturday. For refreshments they had the very special frozen dessert, that had been served at the dinner, made for them.

Members present at the meeting were Audrea Buchan; Kathy, Lori and Sheryl Chapman; Cathy and Shawna Crook; Carmen Guillen; Mary Lindsay; Najla Valentine; Laura Campbell; Leslie Heard; Susan McFaul; Janene Moore; Diana and Teresa Peskett; Julie Ramos; Lynn Roth; Beth and Sprig Swarthout; and Michele Taillac.

'Peace Officers' Memorial Day'

May 15 was proclaimed "Peace Officers' Memorial Day" by the Board of Supervisors on motion of Chairman Warren Dorn.

"This day was set aside to honor all law enforcement officers who have given their lives to protect the public," said Dorn.

The Board ordered all flags on county buildings at half staff May 15 "as an effective way to demonstrate support of peace officers."

Attend the Church of your Choice this Sunday; you will always meet your friends there.

Band Concert Set For Fri., May 19

the rotunda of the State Capitol and those which earned them superior ratings at the California Music Educator's Association Festival in Crockettt will be featured.

Selections by the symphonic band will include: "Variations On A Korean Folk Song," by John Barnes Chance; "Finale of Symphony No. 5," by Shostakovich; and "Masque," by MacBeth featuring student conductor, Philip Hettema. The concert band, an intermediate group, will be performing several lighter pieces.

Among the numbers the orchestra will perform are: "Polka," by Shostakovich; Beethoven's "Fifth Symphony"; and "New World Symphony," by Dvorak. The string orchestra will present 'St. Paul Suite," by Holst.

Tickets are available from any instrumental music student for a $1 donation. They may also be purchased at the door.

The students and their parents' group, the Instrumental Music Club (IMC), express sincere thanks to the community for supporting their activties and patronizing their candy sales and car washes in order to make the Spring Tour possible.

S.M. Latest Avenue To the Movies

rection of this type cinema — 'class diabolique' — and is considered a 'master of the macabre.' Over a hundred films have the renowned Leborg touch, although the charming gentleman only directs one or two a year.

Filming one scene inside Hartman's Pharmacy involved both a surprising amount of equipment and number of people, including the ever present executive producer, Sidney J. Kapian and producer Bob Stone. Director Leborg gave the signal to start shooting "scene 33, take 1," at approximately 10 p.m.

"Scene 33" involved 'Pharmacist' (and Marlboro Country man) George Cary, executive producer Kaplan making a cameo appearance and Miss Faith Domerque. (Incidently, Miss Domerque is one of the actresses included on the Howard Hughes list of "discoveries" which also includes such greats as Jane Russell and Jean Harlow.) Gentle but rigid taskmaster Leborg made five takes, and one extra take for sound, of that particular scene for one reason or another. To the unprofessional observer the scene appeared okay on the first take.

Rather interesting note about the movie, according to producer, Bob Stone, is that being the type of film it is — filled with suspense, strange and unexplainable happenings — the company has also experienced some strange and unexplainable happenings during the shooting. Mr. Stone, a Libra, admits that he believes in the occult, ESP and things of that nature, (however not witchcraft) and is really enthralled with the filming of this particular story.

Every one of the acting group and crew, has fascinating backgrounds but space is too short to give individual histories. And the entire company was most gracious and friendly to all they met. They all expressed a genuine delight with our city and its population.

A young Sierra Madrean, Sonny Hughes, is quite involved in the company with his responsibilities as hair-stylist, make-up man, and as one of the assistants to both producer Stone and director Leborg.

Local police officers assigned to stand by with the movie company were Dan Chudyk and Mike Scannell — both quite handsome themselves. Maybe movies will spirit them away from their chosen profession?

Put this movie on your "must see" list. It will be great fun to see Sierra Madre in the movies (although not for the first time.) "So Evil My Sister" should certainly be an easy title to remember . . . . if they don't change it before it screens!

Installation Lunch Set For May 25

Pasadena Area Panhellenic Association will install its new president, Mrs. Robert L. Kearn, Zeta Tau Alpha at the annual installation luncheon to be held May 25th in the Georgian room of the Huntington Sheraton. A punch bowl will be served at 11:30 by Alpha Omicron Pi honoring the past president, Mrs. Arnold E. Soderberg with luncheon at noon.

Guest speaker will be Mr. Tom Frandsen, director of community affairs and chief of editorials for KHJ-TV Channel 9, Los Angeles. He will speak on the subject "War on Words."

Other officers to be installed include: Vice president, Mrs. Walter Gibson, Alpha Gamma Delta; junior past president, Mrs. Arnold E. Soderberg, Alpha Omicron Pi; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Martin Thompson, Delta Zeta; recording secretary, Mrs. Barry H. Herlihy, Alpha Delta Pi, and social chairman, Mrs. Gordon Taylor, Kappa Delta.

Delegates are requested to telephone Mrs. Harold F. Bennet for reservations by Sunday May 21.

Sales Lag

1½ per cent.

In all businesses in Sierra Madre, totaling 205, for the year 1970 the business accumulated was $5,499,000; and for the year 1971 with 207 businesses, it totaled $5,337,000 a drop of about 3 per cent.

In assessing prospects for merchandising in 1972, the board's report notes the great number of people who bought expensive durables on installment plans last year will not be able to repeat their level of spending in 1972 and that this will tend to throttle back the rate of growth.

Surpassing all other state tax programs, sales and use taxes during 1971 continued to perform the role of California's major producers of revenue, bringing in a grand total of $2.4 billion, $1.9 billon from state sales tax collections and $49 million from local sales tax collections.

Letters To the Editor . . .

Dear Mr. Evans:

The Board of Trustees of the Sierra Madre Community Hospital held their regular monthly meeting on May 10. 1972, the first meeting following the dedication on April 30, 1972 of the new community hospital wing. The response we received at the ceremony and visitation of this new wing was most gratifying to us. We do appreciate the assistance received from the News in making this a successful community event.

The Board of Trustees' vote was unanimous to extend our gratitude to the Sierra Madre News for their help in making this a very successful day.

—Carl H. Hobson

Dear Editor:

The time of year has come again when the British Home in California, Ltd., will hold its Annual June Fair, on the grounds of the Home at 647 Manzanita Avenue, Sierra Madre, on Saturday, June 3rd.

The theme of the Fair is "Spend A Day In London Town" which should provide lots of fun. The Fair opens at 11 a.m. and in addition to the various and sundry booths one can purchase fish and chips, sandwiches of all kinds, coffee and soft drinks. There will also be a award, the first prize being $1000, second $250, third $100 and many more.

I should be most grateful for any publicity you can see your way to give to this affair. The British Home is a non-profit organization.

Mrs. W. M. Guthrie

Hope Sun., June 4

chairman, states, "The City of Hope needs and deserves the support of all of us. I urge you to be as generous as you can — to open your hearts as you open your doors on Hope Sunday, June 4."

La Salle School Presents Comedy

A unique experience in theatre awaits those who attend the La Salle High School production of "You're A Good Man, Charlie Brown." The musical comedy is a feature of the La Salle Festival of Arts being held on the La Salle campus this weekend. Based on the comic strip "Peanuts," by Charles Schulz, the play has received rave notices from audiences throughout the country and is bound to please adults as well as children.

The La Salle drama club has added a new dimension to the play by using new multi-media techniques in the form of color slides and a specially produced film. The production is under the direction of Les Wieder, drama teacher at La Salle.

The cast of the play includes Andre Vaughn as Charlie Brown, Marge Roman of Alverno High School as Lucy, Steven Elerding as Linus, Hermon Brignole as Schroeder, Keith Kinsman as Snoopy, and Joan McCaffery of Alverno as Peppermint Patty.

Performances of Charlie Brown are open to the general public and are scheduled for 8 p.m., Friday and Saturday evenings with matinees scheduled for Saturday and Sunday at 2 p.m. Tickets can be reserved by calling La Salle High School, 351-8951.

Senior Citizens Enjoy Program

The Senior Citizens Club met May 13th at the Park House at 11:30. There will be no meeting May 20th.

After the usual procedure the president greeted Audrey Damond, guest and neighbor of Vivian Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Lankas guests of Mr. and Mrs. Snelling.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved, the treasurer's report was accepted and all bills were paid.

Pearl Patterson repeated the trip to Santa Barbara on May 31st and added on the same day a trip to Las Vegas $30 per person which includes hotel and a few meals.

Gladys Tucker wrote and read a very clever message for "Mother's Day."

We had entertainment which was exceptionally good. It was called "Hamateur Program" acted out by three young men. Michael Mackness, Vince Peterson and March Wexler. Their actions were clever.

Following that act were three singing sisters, Janet, Lisa and Barbara playing the guitar. Their voices were blended in harmony and their selections were enjoyed very much. The Pedersen sisters are really talented.

The president adjourned the meeting for cards.

Hastings Ranch School Hosts Open House

The Hastings Ranch Nursery School, located at 3740 E. Director of the school Mrs. Virginia Bellemeur, and the teaching staff will welcome visitors this week from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m., and will conduct tours of the school.

The parent participation nursery school offers a well rounded program which encourages individual creativity, physical and intellectual growth and provides an atmosphere which fosters emotional and social maturation. Art Gadd Laid To Rest

Services were held at Ripple Mortuary on Monday, May 15, for James Arthur "Art" Gadd, of 11 N. Mt. Trail who passed away suddenly at his home on May 11.

Art was a tree surgeon and Pest Control center and was self-employed. He came to California some 42 years ago from North Carolina and to Sierra Madre 40 years ago.

Monrovia Elks Lodge No. 1427 officated at the 11 o'clock service and committal was private at Live Oak Memorial Park in Monrovia. A niece, Mrs. Claude C. Hunter of Citrus Heights, was the only living relative listed. Ripple Mortuary handled all of the arrangements.

July Fourth Plans Forming

Plans are being laid for another successful Fourth of July Homecoming Celebration says Steve Renfro, Director of Parks and Recreation for Sierra Madre. All interested persons are encouraged to attend the first planning meeting on Thursday, June 8 at the Recreation Center, 7:30 p.m. Participants have come in the past from all over the San Gabriel Valley. Entrants driving Fire trucks, horses, antique cars, decorated wagons, will be expected. Hundreds of participants marching, waving flags, demonstrating uniforms and colorful attire, playing musical instruments, and singing will be scheduled. Contestants in the Beard-growing Contest will participate as marching units and guides for the parade route.

Early decisions must be made regarding many features of the day so the groups who wish to participate are urged to notify the Parks and Recreation Department as soon as possible.

Concert Band At Art Fair

Another fine art — music — will be part of this year's annual art fair when the Sierra Madre concert band presents a concert at 11 a.m. Saturday, May 20.

"Salutation" march will open the program followed by a Herb Albert arrangement of "Tijuana Taxi."

In a change of pace the band will play Handel's "Song of Jupitar," originally written for organ.

A Dixie arrangement of "Billboard Special," the old, Irish melody, "Londonderry Air" and Al Jolson's "California, Here I Come," will complete the first part of the program.

After the intermision, the band will play "Brasilia," the music from the movie "Mary Poppins," "You're a Grand Old Flag" and "In the Mood."

Under the direction of Dana Moffat, the band is sponsored by the Sierra Madre recreation department. Rehearsals are Tuesdays at 7:30 at the Sierra Madre recreation Center and are open to those who would like to play with the group. Summer concerts are scheduled for June 23, July 4 (at 10 a.m.) and July 28 in Memorial Park.

First Time

ard Probart, Sierra Madre Fire Marshal, and Scouter Jack Miller, in the Fire Department quarters.

Alehandro Spada and Ronald Ratliff of Troop 360, and Allen D. Morse and Dale A. Brown of Troop 21, appeared before Edmond Wagner, Scout Leaders Dave Orswell, Michael Shumate, and Bob Peterson in the Council Chambers.

All fourteen of the Scouts were approved by the Boards of Review and their applications went to the Council Office and the National Council for final approval.

cadia, the County and the U.S. Forest Service contained the fire within one and a half hour period, however an all night vigil was kept on the area and several spot fires were taken care of throughout the night.

About eight acres of area was burned and several homes were scorched, and at about 3:45 a second alarm was sent in at the Embree property at Hermosa and Carter, where and a green house was a total loss and a small area of brush was burned over.

Clean up of the areas and the equipment kept the men on the job until after 9 p.m. so that everything would be in readiness for the next emergency.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our deepest gratitude to all fire departments and forestry service, helicopters, friends, neighbors, youngsters and even strangers and also our beloved daughters and their husbands for saving our home during last Sunday's fire. May God shower all of you with his choicest blessings.

Leslie and Mike Robles of Old Ranch Road hosted a lovely dinner in their new home for their mothers, Mrs. Jane Jardine and Mrs. Ann Robles. Especially honored at the dinner was Mike's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Tellez, long time resident of Sierra Madre. Leslie's sister, Karen, Mike's dad, Lou Robles, his sister, Kathy and brother, John completed the intimate family gathering. Although a fairly new bride, reports are that Leslie is an excellent cook and Mike a marvelous host.

A word to those who don't know what to do with their parents — those impossible parents we hear so much about: A Chinaman was driving a cart with a big box in it toward the river when he met his son on the highway. In reply to the son's query the father explained that he had Grandpa in the box. Since he had become such a burden and quite helpless he was going to gently slide the box with Grandpa in it down into the quiet waters of the river and take him out of HIS misery. "But father," said the son, "Let us save the box for I will need it for you."

Out of the Cobwebs

Sixty Years Ago:
May 17, 1912

Mrs. E. S. Stilson has been spending a week at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. Baker of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Tarr and family are now occupying their spacious new residence on Montecito Avenue.

Mrs. Tolman of San Francisco is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. N. W. Tarr of Montecito Avenue.

The Eleven and One Society was pleasantly entertained by Miss Marion Decker, who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Norris of Central Avenue. The evening was spent in sewing, after which refreshments were served.

Announcements are out for the marriage of Miss Etolie Bennett, a former resident of Sierra Madre, now of Long Beach, to Mr. Julius Thorp of that city, which will take place at the home of the bride's parents May 25. The young people will make their home in Long Beach.

A new investigation of the supply of underground waters in Southern California has lately been started by the United States Geological Survey at the request of the California Conservation Commission, which will meet the larger part of the necessary expenses for field and office work. This work serves to call public attention to the results attained in the same region by the Federal Survey through earlier work, which was begun nine years ago under the specific authority of the annual Congressional appropriation "for the investigation of underground currents and artesian wells."

Gaylord J. Martin has sold Arbalita, his beautiful ranch home on East Central Avenue, to Miss Alden and her mother of Passaic, N.J., who will make it their home. Miss Alden is a highly accompuisher musician, having conducted a school of music in New York City. Mr. and Mrs. Martin are at present making their home with the former's mother, Mrs. Euclid Martin, of Oak Knoll, Pasadena, while looking for a permanent location.

Forty Years Ago:

Sierra Madre's dream of palm lined avenues in the downtown district will be a reality within the next two weeks. Trees have been purchased and are being balled in the nursery preparatory to planting. Holes were prepared on the sidewalks several weeks ago and the planting, by the city's unemployed, is expected to be completed within ten days.

Masonic funeral services, simple and unostentatious, were held on Sunday at the Grant Funeral Parlors for Professor John J. Hart, 89-year old pioneer resident and musician. Interment was at the Sierra Madre Cemetery. Prof. Hart passed away at his home, 496 West Central avenue, May 5 after a heart attack. He had been Gregory Miller, son of Valentine "Don" and Katie Miller celebrated his 11th birthday last Saturday at the family home on North Hermosa. Actually, Greg's birthday is today, Thursday, May 11. Hosting the early celebration was Greg's sister, Donna and her fiance, Earl Hill of Rosemead. Party guests were the entire baseball team, the Sierra Madre Cubs of which Greg is a member, playing such positions as pitcher and third base. Greg and his teammates (13 of them) were treated to an outdoor barbecue of hot dogs and everything that goes with them along with the birthday trimmings . . . like cake and ice cream. Ymmmm!

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were not present as they were enjoying a belated 25th wedding anniversary trip. They left early Saturday morning for a weekend at one of their favorite spots, Mexicali.

Happy 11th birthday to Greg!

Saturday evening, May 6, Sierra Madrean Dennis Smith of 304 Sycamore Place was installed as president of the Arcadia Tennis Club. Installation of Mr. Smith and other officers took place at a dinner held at the home of Gail Naes at 389 N. Lima. Some 80 tennis club members and guests were present to see various tennis trophies presented and officers installed. The entire evening was geared for fun and enjoyment starting off with the prime rib dinner. Door prizes and a musical combo added much to the fun.

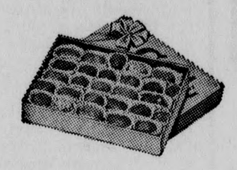

Other officers installed by the out-going president Lloyd Lemon of Arcadia, were vice president, Rusty Dunn, Azusa; treasurer, Ron Legg, Monrovia; and secretary, Deanne Joy.

After his final duties of office were completed, outgoing president Lemon was surprised by receiving a special trophy for his two years of service as prexy. Newly installed president, Dennis Smith made the presentation.

There are quite a few Sierra Madreans in the club, however, Mr. Smith indicates that more would be most welcome. Anyone interested in joining the Arcadia Tennis Club may telephone Mr. Smith at 355-6001 for further information.

New Law in effect:

A prediction that 300,000 firms doing business in California under fictitious trade names will re-file under the new fictitious firm name law was made this week by William G. Sharp, county clerk of Los Angeles County. Sharp is chairman of a committee of county clerks which has been preparing procedures for the new statute.

The new requirement for re-filing of all firm names goes into effect July 1, 1971, but Sharp said the filings will be accepted by the county clerk's offices beginning Monday, and he urged early filing in order to avoid the rush just before the July 1 deadline. The filing fee under the new law will be $10. Filings must be renewed hereafter at five year intervals.

The Los Angeles county clerk also pointed out that the historic publication requirement has been continued under the new law and that publication of the statement once a week for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the neighborhood of the affected business is required whenever there has been any change in the information contained in the certificate previously filed. Publication will not be required in instances where there has been no change in the information carried in the old certificate.

A fictitious name, Sharp pointed out, is one that does not include the surname of the operator or one that implies the existence of other owners; or, if a corporation, if it includes a name other than the name given in the articles of incorporation.

The purpose of the fictitious business name procedure is to protect the consumer in enabling him to find out the person with whom he is really dealing, Sharp said. If he has been defrauded by the "John Doe Television and Time Clock Repair Shop" and the shop is really owned and operated by "Richard Roe" or the "East Ganawanda Land and Farming Corporation," the consumer can find in the fictitious name statement information for bringing suit for damages. The procedure provides a ready source of information concerning identity realities obscured by fictitious business or trade names. Most banks now require evidence that the fictitious filing and publication requirements have been met before they will open an account under a fictitious name.

The office of each county clerk will furnish forms required by the new law or information and forms from this newspaper.

Refiling Dead-Line July 1, 1971

County Clerk's Filing Fee is $10 for Re-Filing or New Filing* leading a life of retirement for some time . . . Born in Cleveland, where he founded the Cleveland Conservatory of Music, Mr. Hart taught the violin until 1884 . . . When the Hart family came to Sierra Madre in 1884, they purchased 40 acres in the center of the village. A part of this property, now the site of the City Park, was a center of social life and the scene of many functions. For many years the Hart home was also the site of a winery, producing a vintage renowned throughout the southwest and also sent to hotels and other establishments in the east. The wine, of which a large quantity was stored for aging, was known as the Monte Vista. A number of local residents tell of drinking wine many years ago that "was 22 years old, even then" . . .

Ten Years Ago:

Members of the Sierra Madre Council of the Knights of Columbus, joining other members of the Layman's Retreat League from Sierra Madre and Monrovia, gave William Schlitz a standing ovation twice during their meeting at the close of the retreat on Sunday, April 29. The men on retreat used the beautiful outdoor Stations of the Cross for the first time that weekend in deference to Mr. Schlitz who was among the retreatants. Fr. Gallo, C.P. Retreat Master, in his last conference of the retreat, mentioned the outstanding quality of Mr. Schlitz's work on the Stations. Fr. Faustinus, Retreat Director, during the Retreat League meeting paid glowing tribute to the artistry, zeal and superb craftsmanship of these stations. These outdoor stations, though not yet complete, are one of the outstanding religious attractions of their kind in the country. They have already been studied by a group from Kentucky who intend to imitate them. "Bill" Schlitz came to California from South Dakota in 1924. He built St. Rita's Church in 1925 and the Passionist Monastery in 1931. He was mayor of Sierra Madre April, 1938 to April, 1942 and councilman April, 1942 to April, 1948. His son, Fr. Keith Schlitz, C.P., is now in residence at the Monastery.

Don Jackson of the Don Jackson Store for Men, 18 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., flew to New York City Tuesday night for several days visit.

The Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club will serve its sixth annual community breakfast in Memorial Park the morning of Saturday, June 2, between 7 a.m. and 12 o'clock noon.

Rev. Anderson Sets Sunday Topic

Pastor Richard J. Anderson, of Sierra Madre Congregational Church, will have for his sermon topic this Sunday, at 10:30 a.m., "The Outpouring of the Holy Spirit."

Remarking on his sermon topic, Rev. Anderson says: "In the Gospel according to St. John, Jesus gives the wonderful promise to His disciples that the Holy Spirit would be poured out from within their innermost being in rivers of living water.

"With Pentecost the early Church had a beautiful two-way balance in the Christian life. They became Christians by receiving Jesus Christ, and they spread the Gospel through the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. As the Holy Spirit was poured out of their lives Jesus promised them that they would become witnesses for Him both in Jerusalem and in Judea and in Samaria and unto the uttermost parts of the earth."

Concluding, Rev. Anderson says: "This evangelizing of the world was like a great tidal wave overflowing and saturating the entire globe. Wherever the Gospel of Jesus Christ is preached it brings the water of life to those whose hearts are thirsty for the living God."

Sunday school and Adult Bible class are at 9:30 a.m.

SPORTS AS Hank Ives SEES IT

LAKER WRAPUP . . . LET'S SAY Wilt Chamberlain gets in excess of $100,000 a year for employing his considerable talents with the Los Angeles Lakers. It's also known that Uncle Wilty picked up a bonus in excess of $17,000 for his part in the Laker's first-ever championship.

NOW LET'S estimate that Bill Sharman was paid a similar $100,000-plus for coaching the Lakers through the pre and regular season campaign. It would seem logical that he would also be in line for a bonus either from management or from the players' fund. It's a cinch that he really didn't need those extra 15 games. The tension and wear and tear on the nervous system had already paid its toll on Bill's voice.

IT ALSO SEEMS LOGICAL that if the high salaried players were given a reward for their super performance, the coach who directed the team to an astounding 8-16 overall record should also be in on the clover.

THE SHAME OF IT is that the organization let their dirty linen be aired for the public to view. This was an inside problem. One that should have been handled delicately so that their would be no tarnish on this, the Laker's and Jack Kent Cooke's finest hour.

NO DOUBT COOKE'S egotism would not allow it but it seems obvious that the man needs a public relations man to serve as a buffer between Cooke and the press and public.

IN THE MEANTIME, three cheers for the Lakers, for the giant that played the best center since the Bill Russell era, for Jerry West who found at least "how sweet it is" to be a champion and for Bill Sharman, who gets my vote as the best coach in the game.

POSTSCRIPT — John Hall hit it right on the head when he indicated the Laker players handed Elgin Baylor a "limp handshake" as his reward. The ace Times columnist says the Lakers probably wouldn't even exist if it weren't for the Baylor magic back in the days when the team had its humble beginning.

GRANTED ELGIN retired during the season. He could have stuck around, picked up splinters and a full share of the playoff pot. Sure he was compensated by Cooke as a member of the public relations team (nope, he doesn't speak for Cooke), and had plenty of time to indulge in his favorite activity at the Hollypark separation center, but not even a gesture was forthcoming for Baylor from his teammates or management.

NUTS. Elgin should have been one of the first men on the camera in the Cooke champagne cellar following the game. The players could have kicked in for a gift for the man who did so much for the team for so many years. Cooke could have done his banty rooster bit on the tube with Elgin rather than Bill Russell.

WILLIE MAYS traded by the Giants. Elgin Baylor ignored by the Lakers. What ever happened to the sentiment in sports?

THIS-N-THAT . . . Former Pasadenan Ellsworth Vines, who made his name as tennis great then followed the PGA trail, still hits the golf ball with authority. He carded a 68-76 at Canyon Country Club last week in the U.S. National Seniors Spring Tourney in Palm Springs . . . The Trojans put the ball in the air 102 times in their pre-season intrasquad tiff. After the game Craig Fertig, who coached the Whites with Pat Haden and John McKay, Jr. said: "I suppose I should have let the backs carry the ball once in awhile just to keep them happy." Haden was 37 of 57, not bad for a sophomore. Mike Rae is an accomplished passer as well and the Trojans are loaded with capable receivers. Vince Dooley, Georgia head coach who watched the game from the press box said he would trade half his team for either quarterback . . . How strange to see just one PHS trackman listed on the final CIF best marks chart. Mike Johnson has the fourth best time (14.3) in the 120 high hurdles.

Lesson Sermon For May 21

A quote from Matthew 6:22. "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light," is a theme of the Bible Lesson--Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" at Christian Science church services this Sunday.

Commentary from Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy includes this explanation: "Soul is the substance, Life, and intelligence of man, which is individualized, but not in matter. Soul can never reflect anything inferior to Spirit.

Services begin at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 186 W. Highland Ave., and the public is always welcome.

PCC Journalism Students Wanted

Former Pasadena City College journalism students are being sought by instructors William P. Buttler and Mrs. Dorothy J. Kolts to arrange an alumni reunion.

Letters have been sent throughout the Los Angeles area and across the nation by Buttler and Mrs. Kolts. Replies have come from as far as Washington, D.C., from alumni now working as newsmen, editors, publicists and business executives — and even one dean at PCC.

"After our reunion, maybe we can keep in contact through a newsletter," said Buttler, "as well as putting former students in touch with each other."

Supervisor Dorn Reports On Road Work In Past 10 Years

Nearly $58 million have been allocated to major road improvement projects in the Fifth Supervisorial District during the past ten years, Supervisor Chairman Warren Dorn reported today.

A recapitulation of work carried out under the direction of the County Road Department during the past decade reveals the following geographical allocations:

San Gabriel - Alhambra area $2.4 million.

Pasadena, Altadena, South Pasadena and San Marino areas, $10.3 million.

Burbank, Glendale, La Crescenta, La Canada, and Montrose areas, $3.2 million.

San Fernando Valley area, $12.2 million.

Agoura, Westlake Village, Hidden Hills area, $2.1 million.

Newhall - Canyon Country area, $20 million.

Antelope Valley area, $7.7 million.

Dorn said some of the larger roadway projects built during the ten-year period include major improvements to Huntington Drive in the San Gabriel - Alhambra area; Monterey Road, New York Drive and Woodbury Road in the Pasadena, South Pasadena, and Altadena areas; Pennsylvania Avenue in the Burbank, Glendale, La Crescenta, La Canada and Montrose group; and,, Burbank Boulevard, Reseda Boulevard. Laurel Canyon Boulevard and Van Nuys Boulevard in the San Fernando Valley.

In the Agoura, Westlake Village, and Hidden Hills area, larger projects involved sections of Kanan Road, Mulholland Highway, Schueren Road, Stunt Road and Rambla Pacifico.

Newhall - Canyon Country work included Bouquet Canyon Road, roadways at Castaic Reservoir, Sierra Highway, and Soledad Canyon Road.

Principal projects in the Antelope Valley were Avenue J, work at the California Aqueduct project and Elizabeth Lake Road.

"Completion of these roadway projects has helped to ease the traffic congestion, a by-product of the growth the entire county has continued to experience during the past decade," Dorn declared.

Police Week Celebrations Planned In L. A. County

Police Week, a national event proclaimed annually by President Richard M. Nixon will be marked throughout Los Angeles County by special events May 14 - 20, the Law Enforcement and Community Recognition Association (LECRA) of Los Angeles County announced last Friday.

Mayors throughout Los Angeles County will be releasing details of Police Week observances in their jurisdiction. Open houses will be a feature in many cities.

LECRA president, Scott E. Temple said while Police Week is a relatively new idea, the word "police" is certainly not. The word police was taken from the French "policer" sometime around 600 A.D. It is thought to have meant 'power of the people."

Temple said the first record of any police force as it is known today, was the Anglo - Saxon in England which extended from 600 A.D. to 1066 A.D. William the Conqueror established a national government in England which did away with the local agencies at that time.

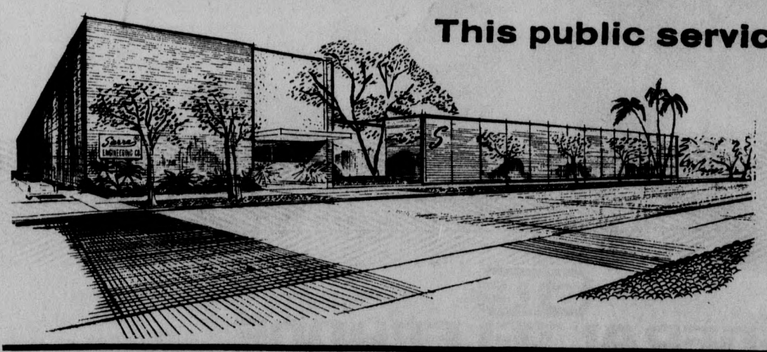

May 15th also has been designated by the President and Congress as Peace Officers Memorial Day and LECRA has called upon all citizens of Los Angeles County to observe it in honor of officers, who, through their courageous deeds, lost their lives or became disabled in the performance of their duty.

Great Need For Mental Health Patrols Urged

UNDERSTANDING YOUR HEALTH...

Vital Health Education Series Prepared Especially for SIERRA MADRE NEWS by the California Public Health Association

If you saw a man running nude down the street, you — or someone else — would probably call the police. But can they really handle the situation properly?

"The police are called upon by psychiatrists, 'hot line' operators, hotel managers, relatives, and others to cope with individuals in the community who appear to be mentally ill," explained Dr. John Snibbe of Los Angeles, instructor in psychiatry at the University of Southern California School of Medicine.

"But the police do not feel, and rightly so," Dr. Snibbe continued, "that it is their role to provide psychotherapy, counseling, or aid and comfort to the lonely and confused."

Even the highly trained professional, Dr. Snibbe observed, may find it difficult to decide how to handle an individual in an acute mental crisis — suicidal, running amok, disturbing the peace. "This is still more difficult for a police officer," he pointed out, "whose training usually includes only eight hours of instruction in dealing with the various forms of mental illness he may encounter."

The City of Los Angeles is somewhat ahead of other parts of the metropolitan area, Dr. Snibbe commented, in that two detectives are stationed at Central Receiving Hospital to screen "mental cases." These detectives are more experienced in handling the mentally ill than the average police officer, but police and mental health professionals alike agree that changes are needed in the system.

One way to improve this situation lies in training, Dr. Snibbe suggested. "A modern policeman," he said, "must have legal knowledge and a high degree of skill in handling people. For the vast majority of officers, judo, skill with weapons, and military training are not often useful, while driver training, psychology, law, community resources and development, violence prevention, and social science are."

Increasing a policeman's ability to deal with mentally disturbed patients cannot be the whole answer, however. Dr. Snibbe recommends that emergency teams, staffed by professionals, be available on a 24-hour basis to handle situations involving mental patients.

"In Los Angeles," Dr. Snibbe reported, "Psychiatric Emergency Teams have been created to cope with mental health crises. These are intended to be staffed by professionals and to handle acute cases formerly taken care of by the police.

"While the concept is excellent," Dr. Snibbe continued, "it has suffered from some serious shortcomings. Staff and equipment have been inadequate, there have been fears for safety of team members, and ground rules for team intervention have been confused."

This has meant, Dr. Snibbe explained, that police have been functioning unofficially as "Psychiatric Emergency Officers." Much of their time may be spent in transporting patients to local mental health agencies and this may cause cars to be out of service for as long as half a day.

"The police also must deal with 'rejects' from the mental health sysiem," Dr. Snibbe observed. "There are the 'bad patients' who are often sent from clinic to clinic because they do not respond to treatment and have little chance of recovery."

The solution, according to the USC psychologist, lies in "Mental Health Patrols" that cooperate with police and answer most of the "mental" calls the police receive.

"This is the only way to provide professional on-the-spot treatment and disposition in the community," Dr. Snibbe stated. "Such a program would free police to perform their real function — enforcement, control of violence and crime."

Such a solution will become more and more essential, the USC psychologist observed, as a community difficulties in handling the mentally ill will be increased by the recent closing of several state facilities and a trend to reduction of the length of hospitalization for mental cases.

Dr. Snibbe reached his conclusions after extensive interviews with members of the Los Angeles Police Department and observation of actual police procedure in handling mentally disturbed patients. The results of his investigation were presented at a recent meeting of the California State Psychological Association.

The People Must Know

By Howard Jarvis
State Chairman, United Organizations of Taxpayers

State Senator Robert Roberti (D) Los Angeles County has introduced SB 1289 into the legislature to restrict the power of Registrars of Voters from invalidating the rights of citizens to have their names counted when they sign a petition to amend the constitution of the state of California.

Such a bill became necessary when the Los Angeles County Counsel and the State Attorney General took the legal position that the right of citizens to petition their government for redress, provided in the first amendment to the constitution of the United States only gave citizens the right to petition the Federal government and did not protect the citizen's right to petition the state of local government.

The entire right to petition, and the laws of California governing this right is being contested now in the Federal Court due to the improper invalidation of qualified signers' names on the Jarvis property tax petition.

A favorable Federal court decision would qualify the Jarvis amendment for the November ballot, but the passage of the Roberti bill would restore the rights of all the people in California to petition their government.

Every citizen of this state should write Senator Robert Roberti, Capitol Bldg., Sacramento, California at once and support his bill vigorously. Citizens should also write their own State Senator and Assemblyman to support the bill.

I will send a copy of the Roberti bill to all who send me a self-addressed, stamped return envelope.

ITEM — A few months ago Mayor Sam Yorty told a large audience at the new convention center that every administration had to have a hatchet man in it who would put poltics above principle, and in his administration that man was Joe Quinn.

I have always liked many things about Sam Yorty, but I would not like to see a Tammany Hall operation installed in Los Angeles and directed by Joe Quinn or anybody else. Nor do I think it would enhance Mayor Sam's election to a 4th term.

Putting politics above principle spells pollution in my book.

No On Destructive No. 9

Californians by the growing thousands are asserting their strong and reasoned opposition to the efforts of a group of extremist promoters to foist upon the state a so-called environment act that actually would set the cause of conservation back 20 years and be ruinous to the state's economy.

It is Proposition No. 9 on the June 6 ballot.

For the sake of all of us (even the promoters) Proposition No. 9 must receive a resounding NO vote.

Opposition to No. 9 is limited to no one segment of California life. Labor, industry, conservationists, scientists, all warn of the obvious dangers in the initiative.

The AFL-CIO California Labor Federation calls Proposition No. 9 "destructive" and recognizing the high cost in jobs and payrolls it will exact from the working man and woman, is fighting the measure.

The California State Chamber of Commerce says "No." So does the California Wildlife Federation.

Norman B. Livermore, secretary of the State Resources Agency and an outstanding conservationist of long experience calls No. 9 "ill-conceived and self-defeating."

'Imposition of this law would result in the greatest depression California ever suffered" is the way Rep. Chet Holifield, chairman of the California congressional delegation, puts it.

Even the promoters of Proposition No. 9 aren't really defending their outrageous, meat-ax approach to "environment." Instead, they are calling people names and appealing to emotions.

Which makes it just about unanimous. NO on No. 9.

Noted Dropout

He quit school when he was 14, but James F. Byrnes did pretty well anyhow.

If he hadn't been a Southerner he might have made it to the White House. That geographical factor led to his being dropped from consideration as Franklin Roosevelt's running mate in 1944. Harry Truman got the vice presidential spot instead.

Byrnes did get the informal title of "assistant president," however. Franklin Roosevelt gave it to him because of the wide power he had as head of the Office of War Mobilization during World War II.

He was elected to Congress in 1910, served in the Senate, as governor of South Carolina, as Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court and as U.S. Secretary of State. Before beginning his public career he was an attorney and a newspaper publisher.

Byrnes' conservatism led him to oppose vigorously and adamantly the court-ordered desegregation of schools, saying the court 'did not interpret the Constitution. The court amended it." He finally broke with the Democratic party over the issue and supported Republican Dwight Eisenhower instead of Adlai Stevenson.

When James Byrnes died recently at 94, he had receded somewhat into history; but he had long since carved himself quite a niche.

How Dry We Are!

It's been pretty obvious that so far 1972 has been a very dry year in California. Now it's official.

The state Department of Water Resources has issued a gloomy report on the water content of the fast thinning mountain snows and warns that if next winter also is dry the state will be caught with critically low water storage supplies and will face the danger of disastrous results in 1973.

Many parts of the state aren't even in the clear for this year, particularly those areas which rely on running streams or small reservoirs. Areas served by major reservoirs will have enough water this year, the Department says, but will need a wet winter to escape 1973's threat.

March was the villain in all this. Its extreme dry weather makes this year rank as the eighth driest in 65 years in the Sacramento Valley, fifth driest since 1900 in the San Joaquin. Fresno had no rainfall during March, the first time that had happened since they started keeping records in 1878. Los Angeles had an all-time low rainfall January through March, at only .13 of an inch.

There used to be a childhood jingle "Rain, rain go away . . . " Californians are reversing that to a very adult and concerned "Rain, rain come our way."

Superior Court Regulates Overlapping Welfare Aid

The state's right to prevent the pyramiding of welfare benefits in households where there are recipients in more than one aid category was upheld in Superior Court here late Friday.

Judge George E. Paras agreed with the contention of Welfare Director Robert B. Carleson that overlapping welfare payments to parents receiving other kinds of aid can be considered as in-kind income in calculating the amount to be paid for their dependent children.

The decision came in a class action suit filed by the San Francisco Neighborhood Assistance, which has been active in opposing the welfare reform program and sections of the Welfare Reform Act of 1971.

In ruling in the state's favor, Judge Paras dissolved a temporary restraining order which since January has prevented Carleson from putting into effect a regulation to eliminate duplicate payments for shared living expenses, such as rent and utilities.

The regulation was adopted by Carleson last October and immediately drew fire on several fronts, including welfare rights organizations and some legislators.

Sen. Anthony C. Beilenson (D-Beverly Hills) declared the regulation illegal at a subcommittee hearing a month ago, and listed it as one among a number of Carleson's welfare reform actions that he considered unlawful.

The senator criticized the director for refusing to withdraw the regulation and for becoming embroiled in litigation over it.

The regulation governing situations where AFDC recipients live with adult aid recipients requires welfare authorities to determine if the total allowances in the various categories in a single household exceed the composite pro rata share of the AFDC recipients.

If it does, the excess is considered to be in-kind income and is subtracted from the standard of need.

"This makes sense," Carleson said, "because the grant in each category takes into account rent and utilities, such as gas and lights and telephone. Yet there is unlikely to be more than one telephone, or two sets of electric lights."

In his welfare message of March 1971, Governor Reagan pointed out that under the conditions that prevailed then, a disabled father might qualify for Aid to the Totally Disabled, his children then qualify for AFDC, and their mother could be hired as an attendant to care for the father — all with no consideration given to the fact that they shared the same living expenses.

The San Francisco Legal Assistance complained that Carelson's regulation violated federal law and that the separate allowances should be given to each individual recipient.

The state demurred, stating that federal law required all income in cash or in-kind to be considered in calculating AFDC benefits.

The Superior Court decision here closes the case, unless it is taken to a higher court on appeal.

St. Francis Hosp. Provides Setting For Art Works

St. Francis Hospital auditorium, 3630 Imperial Highway in Lynwood will be the setting for an art exhibit, May 19, 20 and 21. Sister Karen Boccalero, who is a former teacher at St. Rita's School in Sierra Madre and Annunciation School in Arcadia, will show lithographs, etchings, serigraphs, sculpture and batik from her collection.

Sister Karen, a native of Globe, Arizona, was educated in Los Angeles where she studied art under Corita Kent at Immaculate Heart College. She received the degree of Master of Fine Arts, with a major in Printmaking, from Tyler School of Art in Philadelphia, where she was awarded a fellowship for the academic year, 1970-71

Prior to this the California artist had five years residence in Rome, Italy, studying at the Tyler School of Art abroad. During her stay in Rome, Sister Karen exhibited her works among prominent artists of that city, and was awarded the La Sula Painting Award in 1969. This summer she will be teaching a course in batik at Immaculate Heart College.

The public is invited to view the opening of the exhibition, Friday, May 19, 20, and 21 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

'Fly - Over' On May 29 To Honor Our POW/MIA

Invitations have been extended to the Marine Corps, Air Force and Navy to provide fly-overs for the 100,000 In May celebration on May 29 in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. Tentative acceptances have been received from all three, Emmett Cronan and Stuart F. Nelson, co-chairmen of the affair, have announced.

Each fly-over will be in the dramatic missing man formation as a tribute to Prisoners of War and Missing In Action to focus worldwide attention on the plight of such Americans.

Sebastian Cabot has been invited to narrate the USMC fly-over, with Jimmy Stewart narrating the USAF fly-over and an invitation to Robert Stack to narrate the USN formation. While the actual fly-over depend upon final official approval and weather conditions, officials of the three services have privately indicated their full moral support of the program.

Admission to the event is free. The program, slated to begin at 5 p.m., will open with the arrival of a 51 jeep cavalcade of POW/MIA families from every state in the Union hosted by a celebrity. Free tickets are available from the 100,000 In May headquarters at 406 Wilshire Blvd., Santa Monica, the Coliseum, and County Military and Veteran Affairs offices.

"Civilian and military bands, from all four services, will present a band and choral concert, with special music by the California Boys Choir, and other choirs and glee clubs preceding the official opening ceremonies," stated Martha Raye, grand marshal of the Cavalcade of families and celebrities.

36 From PCC Receive State Scholarships

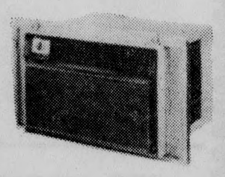

Thirty-six Pasadena City College students have been chosen from approximately 42,000 applicants for state scholarships by the State Scholarship and Loan Commission in Sacramento.

In the expanded tuitional scholarship program there are about 9,526 awards available for students with academic ability and aptitude who need financial assistance at the four-year college of their choice. Students at PCC and other community colleges may have their scholarships held in reserve until they attend four-year institutions.

Each state scholar is entitled to apply for annual renewal of his award if he maintains academic and financial eligibility under commission regulations.

Local student on the list from PCC is Nicholas Lessenevitch.

NEIGHBOR . . .

Ann (Twinkie) Angus was 11 years old on Mother's Day, May 14th. A gala celebration was held Saturday evening, May 13th, when Twenkie was taken to an authentic Japanese restaurant and afterward to see Puccini's La Boeheme. She was thoroughly delighted. Twinkie loves the theater. Her cultural heritage has a great deal to do with this. Her mother, Mrs. Faye Angus, used to dance and both her father's sisters were musically enclined. One sang opera and the other played the violin. This very lovely young lady loves animals, too. She recently acquired three chickens; Tasha, a Bantam, and two Rhode Island Reds named Rhoda and Hilda. There is a daily Easter Egg Hunt at the Angus household, assuring everyone fresh eggs for breakfast. Breeding Guinea Pigs is another hobby of Twinkies. She has the group narrowed down to five in all but we've been told more babies are on the way! We all wish you lots of happy days, Twinkie, and a bright future.

Health Chapter Meets June 1

Sierra Madre Chapter of the National Health Federation will conduct its next meeting on Thursday, June 1, at 8 p.m. at 37 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

The original musical comedy production starring Jenius and the Earthquake Choir will be presented. It is said that this musical presentation will warm your heart and that the restoration of health and ecology is on the move and through music we can give it the spark of life to drive it home.

The committee says: "There are a lot of people who want healthy, helpful knowledge and its time they heard the growing word. The Health and Ecology Revival is an occasion and a show that everyone should see. It will be a fast moving, entertaining, enlightening event that is unmatched, to date. Nobody has a monopoly on health. It belongs to all who desire it!"

The public is welcome and there is no admission charge. Refreshments will be served.

Water Petition Being Circulated

$600,000 to pipe in the water which the District had promised to deliver.

The study also shows that the City of Sierra Madre has carefully developed its own water supply so that it should be adequate for the next 30 years and should not be burdened with $6,000,000 of costs which the Water District will incur to build pipe lines for the benefit of the cities in the San Gabriel Basin.

The actions which the Sierra Madre City Council have taken to date are intended to keep all possible options open and to not have the people of Sierra Madre burdened with several millions of dollars for facilities which will not benefit Sierra Madre.

Mayor Rule stated after reviewing the report which has been submitted to the Los Angeles County Local Agency Formation Commission, that this is probably only the first step in this battle to get equal and fair treatment for the City of Sierra Madre.

"So far the other three cities have tried to force Sierra Madre to share all of their costs while voting against sharing the cost to supply water to Sierra Madre. If we are successful in getting LAFCO to let Sierra Madre determine its own future, I intend to ask the City Council to appoint a Water Study Committee, patterned after the very successful Water Bond Issue Committee, to help the City Council and citizens determine all of the facts.

"This is going to be a long and difficult time ahead and I am sorry to see actions taken which might result in a loss of $4 to $6 million until all of the facts are known."

The Sierra Madre News urges everyone to let the City Council proceed with the current review with the Local Agency Formation Commission. Millions of dollars are at stake and this matter should be decided based on a careful review of the costs and the facts.

To Be A Suspense Film

Sierra Madre's Latest Venture 'In the Movies'

Wonder if Beth Thomas of City Hall knows that one evening last week, lovely, raven-haired Faith Domerque, sat at her desk while waiting for her scene to be called? Offices in the city hall were being used in the shooting of a movie entitled "So Evil My Sister" starring Susan Strasberg, Sidney Chaplin, Faith Domerque and Charles Robinson. Also, as police officers, Larry O'Leno and Steve Mitchell. Former San Francisco stockbroker George Cary — instantly recognizable as the "Man from Marlboro Country" and from his numerous roles in movies and commercials makes a guest appearance. He is also a movie producer in his own right with a very successful company.

Crew, cast and staff all looked exceedinly fresh and alert even though most had been up since at least 5 a.m. Earlier in the day, Wednesday, scenes for the Zenith-International production were shot at Ripple's Mortuary, the Sierra Madre Cemetery and Hartman's Pharmacy, and then City Hall, finally finishing up the day's work at 2:30 a.m. (Does the movie world still sound quite as glamorous?)

As the production title suggests, the GP rated movie is a suspense thriller with, we were told, an unusual twist to the ending. Director of the drama Reginald Leborg is noted for di-

Letters To the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

This horrible crime! Can it be stopped? It affects all of us. It is spreading. Senseless murders, muggings, burglaries, kidnapping, rape, arson, vandalism. This is the story of Mary and Myrtle . . . two of God's better people. Mary and I were coworkers years ago when we were young. Mary is retired now. On comfortable income. Owns her lovely home in a town of many churches. Until recently uniquely crime free. But now Mary says, "People in our neighborhood don't go out nights. I am afraid to take more trips. Afraid I won't have anything left in the house when I return. The family across the street when they returned from a trip found an empty house. All their furniture gone."

Myrtle, also a former coworker, retired, lives in a court in L.A. In broad daylight, in the backyard of her court, she was savagely attacked while walking from her garage to her apartment.. Her arms were laden with groceries. Her handbag was on her right arm. The thief brutally knocked her down, and as he grabbed the handbag he seriously injured her right arm and shoulder. She screamed. Neighbors rushed out. The thief fled with the handbag. Myrtle was rushed to the emergency hospital; then to a regular hospial. After treatment she was released to return home. She was in pain. Could not even write a check. Neighbors were kind. Cared for her.

There was only $5 in the handbag. But her driver's license, checkbook and credit cards were gone. Later the wallet, with her driver's license, was retrned by mail. She cancelled the checking account and credit cards. Was issued new bank account and credit card numbers. For months Myrtle could not drive her car. Now after six months she is still in pain, still requires treatment.

Life will never again be the same for Myrtle . . . Never again that feeling of safety and security . . . Is it fair that the Marys, the Myrtles and the millions of good people must live in fear because of this senseless crime? Jesus must be weeping.
